RESOLUTIONS.

Paper adopted by the Presbyterian Sunday School of Columbia, in memory of Joe Coffey, Jr., a member of this school, has been called from the scenes of this life to those of the life beyond. His death, which occurred Tuesday morning of the past week, after an 'liness of only a few hours, comes as a profound sorrow to each one of us.

He 'had been identified with this school from his early childhood, and he was very faithful in his attendance. He will be greatly missed here and in the community at large.

Cheery, bright and genial, he had a kindly greeting for every one, old and young, which brought sumstline with his presence, and made a multitude of friends. Resolved thy the school.

The custom of giving presents was originated by the Greeks, and they had such a faculty for getting the better of it when they exchanged presents with anyone that the expression "Heware of the Greeks bearing gifts!" became historic. It was on a Christmas day when all the Greeks were showing what they had gotten and were laughing about it that Diogenes, who made a practice of emissing way, set out on his famous search for an honest man. The Persians to time resorted to arms in an effort to get their presents back, but they were badly defeated at the battle of Marathon, and no serious attempts to get presents back has ever been made from that time to this.

Victor Hugo Wrote Ads.

It may not be generally known that Victor Hugo used to draft the advertisements of his own oks instead of leaving the task to his publishers

His correspondence with his Belgian publishers gives the following example of the great novelist's advertising style. "After the middle ages, the present time: Such is the subject of Victor Hugo's double study. What he did for Gothic art it 'Notre Dame de Paris' that he has done for the modern world in 'Les Miserables.' The two books figure in his scheme of work as two mirrors reflecting the whole human life."

Christmas Superstitions

The United States is almost poverty stricken in so far as its collection of superstitions is concerned, our early settlers having failed to import many from Europe, and not adopting those of the Indians. Of course some of us don't like to see the new moon over the left shoulder, or start on a journey on Friday, and the these very seriously. We must go to "the old countries" to get superstitions with any genuine thrill in them. There are a number which have to do with Christ-

In North Germany, where the practical yet poetic spinning wheel still hums in the cottages one must not spin during the 12 nights of Christmas lest he or she walk after death. (To the American reader it may occur that this would probably be more disturbing to others than to one's self.) If the spinning is done after sunset on Saturday, mice will eat the work. If one wishes to have money and good luck all the year, one should not fail to eat herring on New Year's day.

Equalization Board Upheld.

The Court of Appeals has up neld the arbitrary increase of 12 per cent in Jefferson county's assessment, made by the State Board of Equalization. If Ken-tucky had equitable taxation laws that did not put a premium on tax dodging, such an increase would not have been made, to meet the exigencies of a Republican administration, for which it seems that the law gives the Board the right.

Doubtless there are millions of dollars' worth of property in that county, which embraces Louisville, upon which no tax is paid. This state of affairs will continue until a change in assessments is made and the laws are so enacted as will not place the entire Christmas came taxation upon those who either cember 25th? can not or will not hide their property.

If he has he may get out of prison at the age of fifty with a much larger forne than he could have made in

Woman Suffrage.

The fourth of a series of elections held in the State of Oregon for the purpose ascertaining public sentiment upon the proposition to extend the suffrage of women shows a much stronger opposition to the proposition in 1910 than in 1900 when the first vote was taken.
